TOTAL WORK EXPERIENCE: 21 month(s)
Roomstory AI

15-Jun-2024 - 31-Dec-2024

0 Years, 6 Months, 16 Days
PROFILE: Technical designer

Roomstory AI is an Artificial Intelligence platform that works as a personalized AI assistant for every user by analyzing the scans of the images and the dimensions, direction, number of users and other design priorities. As a technical designer, I was responsible for creating multiple Permutations and Combinations of the modules through a sample selection as well as personalized client requirements of their spaces.

Tula by Aka

01-Mar-2025 - 01-Feb-2026

0 Years, 11 Months, 0 Days
PROFILE: Project Architect

During my tenure here, I worked on various residential and commercial projects, from client meetings, design development stage, technical and working drawings, site execution, material selection and costing, vendor and stakeholder management, cost estimation and various project coordination. During this time, I was involved in various projects through their complete lifecycle.

Here, I learned to take responsibilities for a larger domain and the ability to manage people, team, vendors, on site coordination as well the whole project by myself. I was responsible to make the drawings, check the drawings as well as do necessary changes after talking to client and various stakeholders. This helped me decide my inclination towards Project Management.

Freelance Projects & Woven Creations

10-Feb-2026 - 31-May-2026

0 Years, 3 Months, 21 Days

PROFILE: Project architect for my own projects, Content creator, finance and common platform for family business

During this time I worked with the previous 2 firms as a freelancer, took my own projects in the city (design to execution), remote freelancing with Chennai based graphic design firm, as well managing family business.

For the business I worked with my father, the finance person as well as software developer to create a digital platform for the inventory, various bills such as purchase order, multiple customer organizations, various vendors for stock and order delivery tracking systems. This helped us to manage everyday tasks that could be fed on a daily basis and could be tracked easily. I also worked on platforms such as Instagram and logo for the firm to create an online marketing presence.

While working on my own projects, I learnt various financial, client dealing and negotiations, time management as well as project management skills. During these months I learnt a lot of working as a boss and learning about business from a different perspective.

INTERNSHIP / PROFESSIONAL TRAINING (Total Duration: 57 Weeks)

Whitespace Architects, Varanasi

01-Feb-2023 - 30-Oct-2023

38 Weeks

PROFILE: Technical Writer

In this part time role (during my college semester), I was responsible for writing articles for all their projects (ongoing and completed) for their website. Here, the goal was to engage existing clients and attract new clients as a result of indirect marketing through their webpage. Here, I learned to apply my strength of effective writing and understood the importance of client psychology in marketing through the content that was engaging, easy to read and understand, as well dwelled into enough information to make the user understand the technicalities at the same time. Each project was unique and hence, tailoring the content as per the brief, context, user, ideology behind the project, firm's ideology as well as attracting relevant clients for each project.

Edifice Consultants Pvt. Ltd.

15-Jun-2023 - 30-Oct-2023

19 Weeks

PROFILE: Intern

During my internship at Edifice, I worked on multiple projects - from large scale TCS campus in Noida to various commercial campus and data centre projects. I assisted the head of the teams, the senior and junior managers during various stages of the projects including - Design development, client briefing meetings, site visits, meetings and discussions with multiple stakeholders like MEP, structural engineers and material procurement, estimation team and civil engineers.

Being a large corporate firm with 300+ people, taught me the scale and the organisation's business structure and how management of multiple teams and people is maintained.
