INTERNSHIP / PROFESSIONAL TRAINING (Total Duration: 9 Weeks)J. kumar Infraprojects Ltd

04-May-2026 - 11-Jul-2026

9 WeeksPROFILE: Planning Engineer intern

During my internship as a Planning Engineer Intern at J Kumar Infraprojects Ltd., I worked in the Planning Department on the GPRA Colony Redevelopment Project at Netaji Nagar, New Delhi. My primary responsibilities included -

- Assisting the Planning Department in project planning, construction progress monitoring, and project documentation for a large-scale EPC residential redevelopment project.
- Preparing Daily Photographic Progress Reports to monitor site activities and compare actual progress with the planned schedule.
- Assisting in preparing labour requirement and recruitment planning sheets, categorizing manpower based on skill levels and project requirements.
- Supporting quantity estimation, Bar Bending Schedule (BBS) preparation, BOQ review, and material planning for substructure activities.
- Studied Tender Documents, Design Basis Reports (DBRs), Technical Specifications, and Quality Assurance Documents to understand project scope and EPC requirements.
- Assisted in preparing Daily, Weekly, and Monthly Progress Reports for monitoring project performance.
- Supported S-Curve analysis to compare planned versus actual project progress and identify deviations.
- Coordinated with Planning, Execution, Quality, Structural, and Stores teams to support smooth project execution and information flow.
- Gained practical exposure to project scheduling, resource planning, procurement coordination, quantity management, progress monitoring, and construction planning.
