INTERNSHIP / PROFESSIONAL TRAINING (Total Duration: 98 Weeks)

B Design Studios

22-Jan-2024 - 31-May-2024

18 Weeks

PROFILE: Internship

Actively participated in on-site activities by explaining drawings to labor teams, coordinating with contractors, and monitoring construction progress to ensure design accuracy.

Supported in site visits, documentation, and progress reporting, gaining practical exposure to construction methods and project execution.

Assisted senior architects in developing design concepts, architectural drawings, and working drawings.

Contributed to the preparation of 2D drawings, 3D models, and presentation boards for client discussions and reviews.

Conducted research on building materials, codes, and sustainable strategies to aid in design development.

Assisted in preparing detailed drawings and statutory documentation for municipal approvals.

Developed proficiency in AutoCAD, SketchUp, Revit, Photoshop, and other software tools for visualization and design communication.

Gained valuable experience in project coordination, teamwork, and professional communication within a collaborative studio environment.

ICFAI School of Architecture

06-Jan-2025 - 04-Jun-2026

73 Weeks

PROFILE: Final Project

The project began with a conventional layout but evolved into a child-centric, sensory responsive design based on understanding autism needs. The site’s natural contours guided the shift toward curvilinear forms that create a softer, more welcoming environment.

Classrooms developed into circular clusters, improving interaction and supervision, while sensory zoning organized spaces into calm to active areas. Circulation spaces became interactive, integrating nature through features like perforated roofs.

The design finally evolved into a holistic, landscape integrated environment that supports comfort, independence, and growth.

RamTeja Constructions (Urbanrise)

26-May-2026 - 20-Jul-2026

7 Weeks

PROFILE: Intern

During my internship, I gained practical exposure to various aspects of construction project management through regular site visits and on-site activities. I prepared the project MSP schedule based on the master schedule provided by the client and gained hands-on experience in planning and scheduling. I also worked on various types of quantity take-offs and measurements, along with the preparation and verification of running bills. This experience helped me understand the practical application of project planning, quantity estimation, billing, and site management.
